

HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

Providing Professional Security Guarding, Mobile Security Patrols & Lock & unlock Services for Residential and Business Premises

At Patrolsec Ltd., our top management is deeply committed to maintaining effective control over health and safety risks arising from our work activities, as prescribed by the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974. We do so by actively engaging our employees in matters related to their health and safety within the workplace.

Patrolsec Ltd. is dedicated to ensuring the safe handling and usage of materials and equipment. We provide comprehensive information, instruction, and supervision to our employees in this regard. We are committed to fostering a culture of competence and, therefore, provide our employees with the necessary training to perform their tasks effectively.

As an employer, Patrolsec Ltd. understands its responsibility to report specific workplace accidents, occupational diseases, and specified dangerous occurrences (near misses) as stipulated under the RIDDOR (Reporting of Injuries, Diseases, and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations) 2013.

Our primary goal at Patrolsec Limited is the prevention of accidents and work-related illnesses. To this end, we are committed to maintaining safe and healthy working conditions. In pursuit of this goal, we provide, to the best of our abilities:

- A safe system of work.
- Safe plant and equipment.
- Safe methods of handling and transporting articles, equipment, and personnel.
- Adequate training, instruction, information, and supervision.
- A safe working environment with secure access and egress.
- A safe and healthy workspace.
- Appropriate welfare facilities.

The management at Patrolsec Ltd. is fully dedicated to ensuring that, to the extent reasonably practicable, our security operations do not compromise the health and safety of individuals who are not our direct employees, including visitors and contractors.

We also acknowledge that when we produce articles and materials for use at work or when we conduct mobile patrols, offer lone worker monitoring, or any other security service, we have a duty to ensure the health and safety of those who use them. In doing so, we provide all necessary information for their health and safety.

Our Managing Director shall review this policy annually and following any significant changes to ensure its continued effectiveness.
